L 25X1	Thank you for your recent letter enclosing a list of the subject categories in the CIA headquarters regulations and a list of the headquarters handbook titles. To assist me further in understanding the CIA system of regulations, I would appreciate your sending me a copy of the table of contents pages for the following categories of headquarters regulations and for t following headquarters handbooks:

I would also appreciate your providing me with any available information concerning the implementation of headquarters regulations by the Directorates and the Divisions and Offices within the Directorates. I am particularly interested in whether there is an index to such lower-level regulations or whether there is some central file that indicates what headquarters regulations have been further implemented or supplemented by the Directorates, Divisions, and Offices. If such an index or central file indicator exists, I would appreciate your providing me with a copy of it.
